

Anton Pilla

November 18, 1926 - November 18, 2007

ANTON TONYPILLA age 81 of Portage passed away Sunday November 18 2007. Survived by two sons: Anton M. TonyPilla of Portage Dominic NickPilla of Paducah KY twin brother Joseph Pilla of Portage two sisters: Mary Mason of Albion IN Jenny Motta of AL many nieces and nephews. Preceded in death by parents Dominic and Maria Pilla five brothers: Mike Leo Floyd Mark and Sam Pilla sister Elizabeth Macchia. Tony was a member of Church of Jesus Christ Portage. He was a retired employee of Budd Company with 30 years of service a Navy veteran of WWII a good father neighbor and faithful servant. Friends may call at Pruzin Brothers Funeral Service 2700 Willowcreek Rd. Portage Friday from 2-8 p.m. Funeral service will be held Saturday November 24 2007 at 10:30 a.m. from Church of Jesus Christ 2797 Bryant St. Portage with Rev. Jarret R. Spence officiating. Visitation hour prior to service. At rest McCool Cemetery Portage.

Tribute Wall

DH

“ On behalf of Nick Pilla we would like to say how sorry we are that his father has passed away. Nick is a very good man. If Tony was anything like Nick I am sure he was a good man also. Sorry I never got to meet him We love you Nick. Diane & Rocky

Diane Hill - November 24, 2007 at 12:00 AM

DP

“ Tony I am offering my sincerest condolence on the passing of Dad. Although we were separated for the most part I always took great pride in telling everyone of his loyal service to his country in WWII and his dedication to God and his hard work ethic. I proudly tell anyone who asks that yes my name is of Italian heritage and that our father fought to make sure all Americans could be free and live in a better world. I love and miss him always.

Dominic D. Pilla - November 24, 2007 at 12:00 AM