“ Speaking with Fred today I just found out that God has called another Angel home. Working where I do I try not to get close to my customers....I feel so blessed that I allowed myself to know Fred and Barb. What wonderful people....I looked forward to their call each week to see how they were doing and in turn they always asked how my girls and I were. I could tell when Barb was having a good day or a bad day..yet even on the bad days she would find something humorous to say. I will treasure my memories and miss her one liners. May God Bless Fred and his family....holding them close to his heart when they grieve or miss their Wife and Mother. RIP Barb.....no more pain.....

“ Godspeed His love to the entire family and shelter all of you in His wings. I have such wonderful memories of Barb during our childhood when we would swim in Cedar Lake and have sleep-overs at each others house. I will miss my favorite cousin.
