“ Cathy Stablein was my Aunt. I have been getting to know her better in recent years and I am so sad that I will not be seeing her or spending time with her again. She was a special lady and her relationship with my Uncle Jim was sweet and fun and inspired my husband Tim and I to want to be like them. She will be sorely missed.

“ Aunt Cathy and I emailed back and forth since Ive been stationed overseas and I couldnt wait to receive emails from her and Uncle Jim. I then went to the family reunion last year which I havent been in over 6 yrs since the Marine Corps but we had talked and it was so great to see her and everyone. Lynn and I send our condolences. With love and missing you Aunt Cathy.
