“ Junior and I were 1st cousins and as we were growing up his family visited mine every few weeks. Junior and I shared many an adventure roaming my neighborhood - usually involving either escaping from or tormenting our younger brothers. I remember him as a young boy crewcut lean and strong and filled with the sense of adventure and mischief unique to young boys. My memories of him are happy ones. I am saddened to learn he is gone. My sympathy and condolences to his family.
