“Daddy I love you so much and I miss you. We didnt get to see each other much but you are thought of everyday by me. I wish I could have been there by your side to see you one more time to hug you and let you know things are going to be ok. I have a void in my heart now and all I csn do is fill it with the memories we do have together.

“ Dear Lisa My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. I was Dannys boss at Trialco. (I no longer am employed there) I had the opportunity to meet your whole family at some of the company picnics and through the healing process when Danny was burned. I always thought very highly of Danny for his work ethic and how he overcame his upbringing to be a good family man. The last time I saw Danny was a few years ago in Jewel when he told me the family move to Crown Point. I was so happy for him and you. If you care to share would you be willing to tell me what happened to Danny? If I can be of help you or your family please let me know.
Sincerely Jim Lanbehn

“ Lisa our deepest sympathies go out to youDannyDesi & Alexandria!We cannot begin to understand the emotions surrounding your home but I thought a few words might help.Danny had the strength to leave a past become a Father and mature into a Man He was an old world type of guy! Could you Love this man...yes Could you be angry at him...absolutely Could you question his core beliefs...ABSOLUTELY NOT!! Attributes...He had manyHe was the neighborhood watch dog If something wasnt right he said so If kids did wrong hed tell them(especially playing in the street). He talked to all the neighbors be it gossip or letting them be aware of goings on. He was passionate in all his endeavors. His Love of dogsfish gardeningfishing and upkeep. He had a big BIG Pride. He strove to always provide better than he had and make the best life for his wife & kids. He worked long hard crazy hours to benefit them and somehow still managed a great deal of Family Time. He tried to instill respect in ones self as well as others! He will be missed but never forgotten in our hearts!May God Bless Him and Keep Himmay he continue to watch the neighborhoods until we meet once again!! All Our Love Michael & Toni Nowak

“ Dear Lisa We were so saddened to learn about Danny. Our memories of him will always be of a very pleasant person with always a smile. We have of course through the years reminisced about your family and always remember Danny walking across the street with a helping hand when we were moving. You were a beautiful family at Richards wedding and we know soon after you had the baby girl you always wanted. Please send your parents address and phone number. Scott would like very much to contact Richard. Our thought are with you and the children. Love Karol and Butch Johnston
