“ He was my loving father and my very best friend. He was always there for me and my family any time no matter what. He was the best father any one could have every been blessed with. I know he loved me not matter if I was right or wrong. I knew he would always love me in return. I will miss him more than words could every explain. I know he is no longer in pain but I will always bear the pain of losing my best friend and father. His loving son Ted Prine Sr.

“ I met Dee when I was 16 yrs. old and with my best friend Sharon Dancer/Zmuda. I also delivered parts to his shop. I had great respect for Dee he was a very hard worker and loved hios family dearly. I will miss him but I know he has gone home to be with the Lord and his work here on earth is done . I just wanna pray for his family in there time of loss. Let the love of the Lord get you thru this time. In Christ I pray Amen. Marlene parris
