“ She was a fine lady. May God grant her eternal rest and peace, and give her family and friend his consolation.

“ Too often we loose touch with our relatives. Such is the case with Great-Aunt Dorothy. I do remember the house in Lowell and pass near it often. I have fond memories of her and my Grandmother Mary Bruner getting together and making such great meals where they would say, "You know where you're at, if you want something you'll just have to get it."
