“*Dear Mrs. Scheub I know you dont know me but reading the notice just made me have to leave you a little note. It is so encouraging to see that ones today still have the love that you and your husband must have had to share your lives for 70 years. I realize that your loss must be so difficultbut with reliance on Our Heavenly Father I know you can do it. Obviously you are a determined person. I have lost many loved ones just over the past few years including a brother and father. I found much comfort in the bibleespecially Psalm 34:18 and John 5:28. I look so forward to the time I will see them again and Im sure you feel the same. Pleasedear one do take care of yourself and your family will help also Im sure. Again I am so sorry for your loss.
