“ To the immediate family of John....its really hard for me right now to say into words how sincerely sorry I am for your loss of your son John. Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you for your loss. When I called my son Danny to talk about it he said he just talked to John and was excited because he hadnt talked to him in awhile. Danny has some wonderful memories of fun times they all had together. I asked Danny if I met him before and he said he didnt know but seeing his picture I now know he has been at my house and remember that smile and can hear them all laughing.
