“ Simply one of the funniest men that Ive every had the honor of personally knowing and had the good fortune of working with. John was quick-witted and likely to rip on you about something but you that just meant he liked you. John had so many of these sayings.. funny funny sayings. I wish I could remember more of them. I wish I would have written them down. They were classic. John used his command of the comical to brighten peoples day or to take the sting out of some otherwise painful situation. There are so many other qualities John had the lent to his strength of character that made John a true friend to so many he touched. So right now I find myself comforted by this remembering of John and his ways. My deepest condolences to Johns wife Pam his family and his little buddy Murphy. May he rest in peace and have a good audience up in heaven.

“ John was a very funny man. One that could tell a joke and knew how to tell a story. He could make a bad day into one of the funniest days. I am so glad I had the pleasure to work with him and know him.
