“ My mother-in-law, Dolores Sulista Norfrey, was a childhood friend of Lenore in Crown Point, IN. They went all the way through school, gr. 1-12 together. Dolores remembers that they were both good students, had long braids through the 8th grade, and enjoyed some of the same activities during high school. Both had secretarial careers. During early adulthood, they would get together from time to time when the Norfreys returned to IN to visit. They lost touch for a number of years, but reconnected at some point later in life. Dolores was grateful that they always exchanged cards and notes for each other's birthdays (April and September) and Christmas. This year she was concerned when she did not hear from Lenore for her birthday. We just went on line last week and discovered that Lenore had passed away. Dolores was very sad to hear that and sends her sympathies and fond memories to her family.

“ Lenore was a friend and client for years. Always to talk about family and her church. She often was quiet but spoke highly of how proud she was of her nieces and nephew. Her generous soul is now at rest since her heart and legs sometime would bother her but still a smile or a kind word. God Rest Her Soul.
