“ Lenny was a gentleman and a gentle man. He was also my friend. Actually I am probably one of many that could call Lenny their friend. And he loved children. I met Lenny at Salem Church. I sat in his spot two Sundays ago not knowing he would never sit there again but I know his spirit will be there. And I know I will hear that spirit say Amen at least once or twice during the service - sometimes at a very solemn moment and sometimes at a humorous moment. Lenny had good timing with those Amens. know God is embracing Lenny as one of his children and that Lenny is at peace. I chose the candle image for this message so that the light of Lenny will never go out. Peace to his family.

“ I WILL MISS LENNY AT SALEM CHURCH. HE ALWAYS WAS MOVED BY THE HOLY SPIRIT ENOUGH SO THAT ONE COULD TELL HOW GOOD A SERMON WAS BY HOW MANY TIMES LENNY SHOUTED AMEN!! HE ALWAYS HAD NICE THINGS TO SAY TO PEOPLE AND LOVED THE CHILDREN AT CHURCH.I WILL ALSO MISS THE LITTLE WAVE THAT HE DID AS HE WALKED DOWN FOR COMMUNION. GOOD-BYE LENNY
