“ Libbys (Bubs) love shines on her childrens and grandchildrens faces and remains in their hearts. As her daughter-in-law I complimented her often on raising her children to become unusually loving thoughtful caring and kind people. Always ready to help in any way Bub gave her time lovingly to be a wonderful and involved grandmother. Our boys treasure those moments and we all miss her dearly.

“ My Grandma - Bub the kindest sweetest most gentile person I have ever known. Im sure I will never meet another human that will ever come close. In the last two weeks I had the best two conversations I have ever had with her and I am so happy that I got to say goodbye and tell her that I love her that one last time. There is a void left in my heart that will never be filled quite as full as it was by the love I felt from her.

“ My condolences on the loss of your mother. Loss of ones parents is of course one of the difficulties which most of us face. For Art: a personal note. It was with sadness that your tenure with the band department at Hobart ceased. I believe I understand to some degree at least the difficulties in the situation but you had so much talent and could have been a great asset to that program. I feel certain that you have done a superior job in the area of teaching which supplanted that but still the music program lost a fine teacher. Gordon Wilder
