“ I grew up and went to school with Bob and knew his mother (Mary) for many years. The times that were spent at Ridge Lanes were even though many years ago were very special. We will keep the Klen family in our thoughts and prayers. May she rest in peace.

“ Cheryl...I was so sorry to hear that your Mom passed away and I would have loved to pay my respects and see you again but I was scheduled to have a total knee replacement. Hope all is well with you and your family. I have alot of fond memories of your mom and us growing up together. Once again my sympathies. Peggy

“ My condolences to you and your families. Mary was alot of fun and we had good memories when she would get up and do her dance. Her favorite song was Plave Ociar in English Blue eyes. Mary and Vince are up there bowling alng with Rudy. So when we hear thunder we know there trying to hit that 300. Sorry I couldnt be there . Maybe if you are arround on Sunday Dec. 27 a Sunday we are having a cepacice dinner at 12:oo for $10.oo with tamburitza music and we could have a drink for our dearly departed. So Please take care and if you need anything let me know . Lots of LOve Betty
