“ THE IMAGE I look upon the picture hanging on the wall and of the solace that it brings as the last leaf of the fall. and in the color of the eyes stained red from all the tears. I see the pain come and gone in the passing of the years. With hair thats lost its golden shine all streaked with threads of white expressions on the face I see are distorted without light. Stand to the left. or to the right the image seems to change yet as I look deep within its simply quit the same. At times I cant remember the picture that I see or why its hanging on my wall or who this face can be. And then a tiny sparkle comes through the window pane and shines upon the face I see my heart begins to fain For now I can remember where I know this face its my reflection in the mirror held softly by Gods grace. Michael August 09 I wrote this poem several weeks ago not just for Nancy but for everyone who at times forget that they were created in the image of God. My wife had a special place in her heart for everyone who needed her. God had a special place in His heart for her. God has taken My Wife My Nancy home. No longer to suffer the torment and confusion of forgetting Her reflection in the mirror. I will miss her but I will remember her in good memories in happy memories in sad memories in hard memories because we made them all togetherfor we shared LOVE. Love Michael

“ Dear Michael and Bartos Family It was with great sadness that I learned of Nancys sudden passing. I no longer receive the newspaper and I had not spoken to you in some time. Being told that Nancy drowned in Rosser Lake was such horrible news. What a tragedy. My heart goes out to you Michael so recently losing your father and now losing your wife. I cannot imagine the sorrow. My heart goes out as well to all of the children who are now deprived of their mother in this world. But I know that Nancy had a very strong faith and is now in peaceful communion with the Lord Jesus Christ. I take comfort in that. I only wish that I had known about this in time to have attended the funeral. Mr. Logan spoke to me the other day and told me that he was there. The last time I saw Nancy was through our shared hedgerow. She was lying in the sun in her swimsuit with the radio playing happily. She then got on her lawn mower and rode off with her long blonde hair blowing in the breeze off into the sunset. That is how Terry and I will forever remember her: happy and beautiful. I only wish that I had had the chance to talk to her again as we had done years before. May God comfort you in this time of sorrows. Your neighbor Kristine Obsenica

“ Mike I am real sorry for everything you have been going through. Nancy had a kind soul and loved her boys dearly. Every conversation we had included Richard Jacob& Caleb. I still picture her working in the yard and on her flowers. I also enjoyed bowling with her years ago. I hope you can overcome the pain and be strong for the boys. I am just across the street if you need help with anything. Your neighbor Kim.

“ Jamie I am so so sorry to hear about the sudden loss of your Mom. Nothing I say will make things better for you during this time of sadness. My wish is that you can find comfort and peace with only fond memories of the times youve spent together in the past. May the hurt in your heart slowly pass as you think of her as an Angel in Heaven watching over you and Dylan for many years to come. God Bless You & your Family.

“ To Mike Jamie and Dylan Richard and Michelle Jacob Caleb Dora Robert and family Richard and Sue Mardelle and family Becky Ed and family and Debbie Steve and family - my heart prayers and sympathy go out to each of you. Nancy holds a dear place in my heart and always will. My fondest memories of Nancy are of when we were teenagers. We used to go to Whiting park and swing and sing and talk and laugh together. Over the years we've always kept in touch and she'd tell me we need to get together again and swing and sing. My heart is saddened by this tragic news but I know she is in Heaven with our Heavenly Father and we will all see her again one day. God be with each of you and Bless you with the peace and comfort that only He can give. Love Aunt Sheryl

“ Mike Jamie Richard Jacob Caleb I am so sorry for your loss. I loved Nancy very much and was blessed to have her in my life. It will take a while to get used to her not being here. She did so much for so many people. May God in his infinite grace and mercy grant you peace of mind and heart in this time of sorrow.
