“Phyllis will always have a special place in my heart. I met her daughter Barb at Macy's where we both worked. One of the things Phyllis, Barb, and I had in common is our love for cats. At one point, a few years ago one of my kitties passed away. Luckily for me, Phyllis and Barb have a hard time saying "no" (as do I!) to any furry little friend that might come knocking at the door. So, it just so happened that they felt the need to find a new home for their one boy named Samson. Now, Sam was not the only kitty at the house, however, as special as he is he was the only one Phyllis was willing to let leave her care! After that, we became family. Phyllis, Barb, and I enjoyed each others company, movies, and dinners. I know what it is like to lose a parents, and Phyllis was on the phone with me right away when my mom passed away. I hope everyone realizes how lucky they are to have their mothers, grandmothers, and any wonderful friends we may happen to find along our live's path. Phyllis gave me a wonderful gift just by being herself and I feel very lucky to have had her in my life. She will be missed greatly but always there if we need her. God bless and keep you Phyllis. Love love.
