“ Dear Helen Mimi and I want to extend our hearts deep empathy toward you at Bobs Homegoing. We know you must be on an extreme rollercoaster with your emotions at this time. Life is so fragile and brief in eternitys perspective. Mimi and I remember vividly the many many humorous incidents we had with you and Bob at the bus drivers banquets Sunday School and certain janitorial personalities. We will always remember Bobs BIG welcome smile as he looked through the top of his glasses. Praying for you during this time of adjustment with love Ron and Mimi For the Christian in spite of the sadness there is never despair.
