“ Dear Connie and Family Your in my prayers at this time of sudden loss. Growing up on the same street with pete all us kids were in each others houses I always loved how Bob would laugh so large and hit the nail on the head at the same time. You always have had such a sweet Grace I know God will Be holding you tight. Love christine howe and Family

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you at this difficult time. Some of my fondest memories of Uncle Bob was the fact that he was such a big Notre Dame fan and he always had a couple of jokes to share.
