“ Dear Uncle Walt Wayne Marilyn Wendy Jo Kathy George Alison and Erica I will forever be grateful to have known Aunt Rose and been a recipient of her love and kindness. She always had a smile and loving words for me each time I saw her. She repeatedly asked me about my parents and my kids and she was truly interested. She made me feel a true part of your family. She will hold a special place in my heart always and wonderful memories of her will continue to enrich my life. I am even more grateful to Aunt Rose for what she did for my Mike loving him and caring for him and giving him the love family and home that he would not have had otherwise. She and her love and guidance have helped to shape him into the wonderful loving and caring man he is today. I love you all and will continue to remember you in my prayers. I am confident that Aunt Rose is in a better place and will always be here in spirit to watch over us. Paula
