“ Dianne Our thoughts and prayers go out to you and the rest of Scots family. He was a good friend and I have good memories of our times together. We worked hard but had good times. He loved his golf game! Scot will be missed by all that knew him. May your tears of sorrow now turn to tears of joy for the memory of the wonderful years you and Scot had together here on Earth. May God take you through this very sad time with his loving care. Jerry & Joan Eddy

“ To Scotts family. No words can express our sorry for your loss. Carl and I just recently met Scott and we both feel so fortunate to have had the opportunity to spend a little time with him. It was very obvious how much he loved and cherished his family and friends. Scott will always be with you in your hearts in the stories told and your memories. You are all in our thoughts and prayers.
