“ Uncle Ted and Aunt Bernice have always been my favorite relatives! That twinkle in Uncle Teds eye that chuckle that made everyone laugh and his way of making people feel special are what I remember most. I am truly blessed that he was my uncle. Heaven will be an even greater place with him there! Love Jackie

“ To The Family of Ted Reynolds I was very sorry to learn of Teds passing. I always considered him a good neighbor and friend-even if he did give me my first bloody nose. Would liked to have been there to offer you all my condolences but that was virtually impossible as I had a Dr. apointment this morning.ROSS

“ God Bless Uncle Ted. He always made me feel special when we came to visit. He would wrap his arms around me and give me a big hug while whispering Sissy bug Sissy bug where have you been... into my ear. Nothing brought him down. He could make a a funny even when he was hurting. I was awed at how upbeat he was after he had his hip replacement fixed. He loved life and it showed in every thing he did and everyone he loved. My last memory of Uncle Ted was sitting with my dad at Valeries Wedding. There they were with there heads together laughing. Im guessing they were reminiscing about the wild times they had coon hunting road trips in the Woolly Bully holidays with the family and Uncle Butchs Hungarian sausage. Age had slowed them down but their memories made them ageless. Uncle Ted will always hold a special place in my heart.

“ Our deepest condolences to all of Uncle Teds family & friends. We'll always remember the fun times had at the house in Ranburn Woods. I always admired my favorite uncles carpentry skills especially that magnificent sleigh he built in his garage! Uncle Ted was one that could make us laugh with his antics. He will forever be in our hearts. Love Wink & Tina

“ I worked with Ted in the carpenter shop at USX for 10 years. He was a hard worker and had a great sense of humor. Tom McNeil never found out who called him up and sang an Irish song on St. Pattys day and then hung up! Good old Teddy. We are out of the country on a trip or else we would be at the wake. Our condolences to Teds family. Louise also knew him from WCC her dad liked talking to Ted at the Sportsman Club.

“ So many fond memories of the times spent with Uncle Ted and Auntie Bernice. Uncle Ted playing that song about a racoons tail on the piano. The smell of stuffed cabbage cooking on the stove. All the coon hounds barking in the back yard. The leg of lamb cooking in Uncle Teds make shift grill for Easter. The big tree with the squirrel feeder that was visable from the picture window in the dinning room. How those squirrels loved the peanut butter bread. Uncle Teds big hugs that made everything alright. Uncle Ted yelling MAAAA MAAA from the bedroom just to get Auntie Bernice all worked up. Uncle Ted and my Dad had a great time together and were always laughing. Such friends they were. Scheming up ways to get into trouble just to see my Mom and Bernice get mad. What a time it was. Those times are over but will never be forgotten. Thank you Uncle Ted for all you gave me...good times laughter love and family. I will so miss you!
