“ Have not been in touch in years. When he moved to Michigan City we lost contact. I have many good stories of Tim and will always remember them. Rest in peace

“ On example is my greatest memory of Tim is Christmas in 2009. I was at my Uncle Richies house. Richie took his daughter and showed her a picture of Tim and all his medals. She then walked up to Tim aand say you are famous and asked him for his autograph. Tim just smiled and said do you have a pen and paper. And so in closing Id like us to not just feel the mourning but to also celebrate his life and remember the good times with my uncle Tim.

“ Today my uncle Tim Williams will be laid to rest. I know as we all know Tiim was in the Vietnam war a war that was over a long time ago but still raged on for Tim but now lknow for Tim the war is finally over and he may now rest in peace.He can now look down on all of us from heaven. Tim had bad times but like all of us well remember him for the good.
