“ Grandpa It has been a month ago today that we lost you....I love you and miss you very much. I will always remember every time I asked you how you were the same reply everytime was Im mean old and ugly. I will never forget the Melon heads either your nickname for all of Grandmas Precious Moments. I love you and am thankful for the fact that I spent the time I did with you while you were ill. I have a lot of good memories in just that little bit of time....Thank you. You made my daddy what he is today and he is a great daddy!! Love you and Grandma sooooo much!!!! Love Angela

“ Reading about your Dad even just going over the names of all of you kids brought my pre-teen and teenage years rushing back to me. I can hardly believe how many pleasant moments hours and days I spent in Carr company. I even liked your Dad as grumpy as he pretended to be. Your Mom had always been one of my favorite people on earth from her days as a lunch matron at Riley School. You all and each have my love and concern especially during your intense new grief. your friend allways John Brodar
