“ We only met Bill one time, at the wedding of our Grandson Robert. But from the very first we liked Bill and had many long conversations with him. Just before he left to return to Indiana I told him that I believed every man made mistakes, but that likewise every man did some good things in his life. And I told him then that one of the greatest things that Bill Pearson ever did was to father a young lady named Cathy Marie. My son Tim could have search the world over many times and never found her equal. Bill was a good man and we shall all miss him. Please know that you are all in our prayers and thoughts.
